BARRY ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN AFRAID

Said to Have Previously Reported Dynamite Car as Unsafe —Leakings Exploded.

According to a Detroit newspaper, the statement of Conductor Thomas Barry, who had charge of the plug train, shows that the car of dynamite was in such a condition as to make it unsafe and that he was afraid of it to such an extent that he reported it to Station Agent Stimer.

Barry is said to have told the following while lying in a cot in the Aberdeen Hotel, having his wounds dressed by Dr. Keane:

"While we were switching, making up the train, several persons told me that the dynamite car was leaking, and that the stuff was exploding when the car wheels ran over it.

"I saw it for myself, and was afraid of it, and I notified Mr. Stimer. We opened the car and went in. There must have been a hundred boxes of it. In some cases they were piled one on another, but in others they were standing alone. We found five or six boxes that were not standing on their right end, and turned them around, thinking that this would stop the leaking.

"Several merchants in this town also got in the car, and I told them that the man who made the stuff did not know what he was about. They joked me and said that I was scared. Then we got out and closed the car. This must have been half an hour before the explosion occurred. We were all ready to back up for the passenger coach; McNarry had just swung the engineer down. The engine was just stopping, but I do think the wheels were not tight when the explosion came. I was knocked down and blown in against the door of the station."

CONDUCTOR BARRY RESIGNS

Crown Attorney J. H. Rodd claims that evidence is piling up fast against the M.C.R. people in connection with the explosion at Essex recently. Provincial Detectives Mahoney and Campeau are at work securing a quantity of evidence which, it is proposed, to use at the adjourned inquest on Aug. 23.

The most significant occurrence within the past few days is the resignation of Conductor Barry, in whose nominal charge the car containing the dynamite is supposed to have been. Barry, who has sufficiently recovered from his injuries to be discharged from the hospital, has no explanation to offer at this time as to why he chose to resign, but it is understood that the prosecution will call him as the star witness when the case comes up again. Agent Stimers and Fireman Madigan, the other victims of the explosion, are still in the hospital, but are mending slowly.

Near Drowning In S. S. C. C. Lake

William Barry Rescued After Falling In.

William Barry of Detroit, who is in Decatur visiting his brother, Thomas Barry of the Talbott-Barry Motor Co., fell into the lake at the South Side Country club shortly before 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon but was rescued from drowning by the life guard and some other swimmers close by.

A doctor and the city lungmotor was called but it was found he had taken in practically no water and the machine was not needed. He had practically recovered when the lungmotor arrived.

WAS FATIGUED.

Barry had been out on the club golf links and had otherwise been exercising. Rather fatigued on his return to the cottage, he went down to the lake to take a swim. He was said to have had a light stroke that caused him to fall from the pier into the water.

Tom Barry Lands 4½ Pound Pike

Gets Fine Catch At South Side C. C. Lake.

After a struggle in which his pole was broken, Tom Barry of the firm of Talbott-Barry landed a four and one-half pound pike in the South Side Country club lake Thursday afternoon. The first was placed on exhibit in Wilson's hardware store window Friday.

The South Side Country club lake was once stocked with pike and there are said to be many of the fish in it, but it is seldom that they are taken. In landing the big one Thursday Mr. Barry broke his pole. He was using a spinner and one of the hooks was bent by the fish.

Sneakthieves were at work again Thursday night in the east part of the city. The residences of Lyle Brown and D. Leslie Davis, 2168 and 2176 East Prairie avenue, were burglarized and ransacked from end to end.

In the Brown home drawers of dressers were opened and rummaged, a cedar chest was turned topsy turvy, and every place likely to be a hiding place for money was thoroughly in-

ST. JOHN'S PICNIC ON PARRISH FARM

Swim, Ride in Motor Boat and Have Big Supper.

The Sunday school of St. John's Episcopal church picnicked on the Roy Parrish farm, Thursday afternoon, and the crowd numbered about 150. The picnic was sponsored by the congregation and the St. John's Men's club.

The picnickers were taken to the grounds in an I. P. and L. bus and given rides in a motor boat. Swimming was a feature of the afternoon and evening and instructions had been given to take along the bathing suits as everyone would want to swim. High rides in the big swing, and last but by no means least, the big picnic supper served on the grassy banks.

Prizes had been provided for games but the children were having so much fun that they could not be drawn into competitive games and these prizes were passed out as favors.

T. B. CASES FOUND IN MANY PEOPLE

Minneapolis, June 19—(AP)—Some form of tuberculosis was found in 1,966 persons out of 6,174 examined at 367 clinics held in 79 Indiana counties by Dr. James K. Stygall of Indianapolis, according to a report made to the delegates of the National Tuberculosis Association here this morning. The clinics were under the auspices of the Indiana Tuberculosis Associations. The figures indicated that approximately one-third of the persons who come to free health clinics for examination are found to be tuberculous.

Dr. Stygall's figures showed that of the 1966 cases diagnosed as tuberculous, 1,053 were actively diseased and 949 had no knowledge of that fact, 712 having tuberculosis in an inactive form. He recommended the occasional type of clinic in the small rural communities of the country as an admirable means for finding tuberculosis in persons who did not realize that they had the disease.

End of State's Case in Steele Trial Near

No Intimation Yet as to Whether Defendant Will Testify in His Own Behalf.

(By Staff Representative.)

Sullivan, Nov. 26.—The end of the state's case in the trial of William A. Steele for embezzlement of funds of the Merchants and Farmers State Bank of Sullivan, is in sight.

When the week-end recess was taken at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon there remained further cross examination of J. W. McClellan, then on the witness stand, additional testimony by Eber L. Craig, who at several times has been called to the stand to answer a few questions, and the examination of a couple of the bank's directors to complete the state's case. This, it was stated Saturday by one of the lawyers for the state, is expected to be completed by Monday evening. If this is accomplished, the taking of testimony for the defense will commence Tuesday morning.

MATTER OF CONJECTURE.

How long it will take the defense to present their case in refutation of the state's charges is not known, and whether or not the defendant himself will take the stand is a matter of conjecture. There has been no intimation of his counsel as to their purpose in this regard. "In fact I would be willing to spend more money to make even a better show than we had then" continued this dealer who is convinced that such a show is a good thing for the automobile business.

"It not only stirs up the prospective buyers and stimulates their interest but it also tends to get the dealer more actively interested in his own business. It gives us all a little more "punch." I'm for a show if we can possibly find a place in which to hold it."

The location of such a show is the real problem which faces those who are interested in putting on such an exhibit.

STANDARD SIGNS.

Automobile clubs will notice with considerable interest that the state highway commission has ordered that all road signs on the new state hard roads must be of the standard type which the state has adopted and which the highway commission will maintain. This means the doing away with the many and various signs which have been placed along the highways by local clubs, enterprising advertisers and others.

DOUBLE MASTOID FOUND BY DOCTOR

Danville, Nov. 26.—A double mastoid condition, said to be very rare in surgical annals in this city, was discovered at Lakeview hospital, when Miss Edna Huffman, aged 9, of Olivia Park, brought to the hospital on last Monday in a very serious condition, was found to be suffering from such a condition. There was an abscess in the back of the head, just about midway between the two mastoid abscesses. There was very little hope held out at the time of the operation, but Friday Dr. Thomas J. Carmody, who performed the unusual operation, said the girl was in a fair way to recovery

End of State's Case in Steele Trial Near

(By Staff Representative.)

Sullivan, Nov. 26.—The end of the state's case in the trial of William A. Steele for embezzlement of funds of the Merchants and Farmers State Bank of Sullivan, is in sight.

When the week-end recess was taken at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon there remained further cross examination of J. W. McClellan, then on the witness stand, additional testimony by Elmer L. Craig, who at several times has been called to the stand to answer a few questions, and the examination of a couple of the bank's directors to complete the state's case. This, it was stated Saturday by one of the lawyers for the state, is expected to be completed by Monday evening. If this is accomplished, the taking of testimony for the defense will commence Tuesday morning.

How long it will take the defense to present their case in refutation of the state's charges is not known, and whether or not the defendant himself will take the stand is a matter of conjecture. There has been no intimation of his counsel as to their purpose in this regard. One may make his own guess as to how the jury would view the defendant's failure to take the stand in his own behalf, yet if he doesn't the prosecution is barred by law from making any reference whatever to such failure in their arguments to the jury.

A DISAPPOINTMENT

When court was adjourned by Judge Boggs at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, it was a distinct disappointment to a hundred women and twice that number of men who had just got themselves comfortably seated in the spectators' chairs for a full afternoon's entertainment. The audience, one of the largest present during the trial, filed out reluctantly.

NOT WITH STEELE.

While the people in general are not talking as freely as they did in the spring, when the very air was charged with intense antipathy to both Steele and Z. B. Whitfield, and while there is now some sympathy expressed for Mr. Steele and even some few have been heard to question his guilt and predict an acquittal by the jury, it cannot be said that the people are with him. Indication of this is heard in a little rustle and suppressed laughter whenever the court sustains objections by the prosecution to some line of questioning by the defense. However, the storm has been weathered, the bank is solvent and in operation, the first great tide of resentment is past, and the people are in a much different mood than a few months ago.

FOUGHT FOR ANSWER.

For fifteen minutes of the forty-minute session Saturday afternoon, Attorney E. J. Miller, of counsel for the defense, jockeyed with the witness and counsel for the state in an attempt to get Joe McClellan to tell what would be necessary to make the several books of the bank balance, in the event of a fraudulent manipulation such as has been shown was made in the daily balance sheets of the bank.

Eventually Mr. McClellan was permitted to say that a balance could be shown by no other means than by extraction from the funds of the bank the sum fraudulently shown in the balance sheet footings, and that satisfied both defense and state.

LARGELY CORROBORATIVE.

The testimony of Mr. McClellan was largely corroborative of that of Miller Weir and George Huskinson, other representatives of the state auditor's office, who recorded him. He related, however, the story of his various examinations of the bank, shortages found, conversations with Mr. Steele and other matters. He said that at the time of the reorganization of the bank, July 17, 1914, there was a shortage of $47—000. He made no investigation of the depositors' register, however, from that time until March 13, 1916. From the latter date until the closing of the bank he reiterated the defalcations amounted to $158,183.

Judge Cochran, one of the directors of the bank, was recalled to the stand for a brief period Saturday.

Our Irish Ancestry – The Picketts and Condons

In February 1918, our future grandparents, Francis Leo Hunt (1888-1954) and Mary Frances Pickett, (1895-1974) were married in Troy, New York. "Pop" Hunt's father, Thomas, and Thomas' father, William, lived in Amherstburg, Essex Co. Ontario. William was from England, Thomas happened to be born in Wayne Co. Michigan and both later lived in Toledo. William married Ellen Crimmins, born in County Limerick and Thomas married Ellen Lovett from Dingle, County Kerry. That accounts for half of our Irish ancestry. The Picketts and Condons are the other half.

Until recently, our Nana Mary Hunt's ancestry was incomplete and little was known about her parents, William Pickett (b.1865) and Ellen Condon (b.1871), both from County Cork, Ireland. Records identifying William's parents are still inconclusive but Ellen Condon's ancestry has recently been discovered.

I was contacted recently by Stephen Rooney of South Carolina. He did the Ancestry DNA test and it linked us as 2nd or 3rd cousins. He provided information about the Condon and Rooney families and a photo of Ellen's Pickett's mother, our great-great grandmother Bridget Condon. Multiple generations of Rooneys are from Troy NY. His great grandfather, Joseph Rooney, married Helen Pickett who had been a boarder in his household. She is the recently discovered sister of our Nana Mary Pickett Hunt. This is the history of the Condon clan and what can be discerned of the lives of William and Ellen.

In County Cork, Ireland, Bridget Fitzgerald (1847-1918), married Maurice Condon. They had twelve children, six of whom were still living in 1900. The Condon family farm, (and many others) in Upper Skeheen, Brigown Civil Parish, near Mitchelstown, was taken in 1893 by the British government to build a military garrison, Camp Kilworth. The Condons were paid a "nominal sum" equivalent to $20,000 in today's dollars. Soon afterwards, Maurice died and the Condons emigrated to New York between 1886-1888, settling in Troy. Three of their Irish-born children were Ellen (1871-1904), Nora (1876-1963), and Bridget (1878-1918). Nora married John Coffey, Bridget married Joseph Rooney and Ellen married William Joseph Pickett.

Ellen and William Pickett had five children: Mary Frances (1895-1974, Nana Mary), Redmond (1897-1976), Nellie (1899-1901), Helen (1900-1920) and William Joseph Jr. (1901-?). Nellie was only 2½ when she died and she is buried in St. Mary's RC church cemetery in Troy. Her brother, William does not appear in the 1905 NY state census or later and is presumed to have died young. A genealogist at St. Joseph's church in Troy is still looking for his grave.

Ellen died in August 1904 leaving William with three children to raise and he boarded them with his late wife's sisters. Mary and Redmond were sent to live with Nora Condon Coffey and her husband John. Helen was placed with Bridget Condon Rooney (1878-1918) and her husband Joseph (1882-1933). The two families lived in the same apartment building.

William was employed as a puddler at the Burden Iron Works. The job entailed turning cast (pig) iron into wrought iron and pouring it into molds to produce a variety of home and industrial products. The work was dangerous, hot and exhausting. A puddler's life expectancy was short and difficult. By 1909, William was no longer able to work due to deteriorating health and he entered the Rensselaer Almshouse. There is no information about him until 1920 when he was admitted to the recently opened Pawling Sanitarium (Wynantskill) for patients with tuberculosis and other communicable diseases. He died there on Jan. 14, 1922. He and Ellen are buried in St. Joseph's church cemetery in Troy.

Joseph Rooney's wife Bridget died in March, 1918, and in 1919 he married 19 year old Helen Pickett, his late wife's niece, the girl he and his wife helped to raise. This union was regarded as controversial as Joseph was twice Helen's age. She died on Dec. 31, 1920. The marriage produced one daughter.

Mary and Redmond Pickett grew up in Troy and both worked their teenage years in one of the large factories that produced shirts, detachable collars and cuffs. Mary and Redmond (he changed it to Raymond) grew into their adult years without the comfort of having living parents. Mary had five children, Frank Jr., Robert, Raymond, Marie and Anita. Raymond Pickett and his wife Mary Passanno had three, Helen, Mary and Raymond Jr., known as "Buddy".

These two photos were taken at the Condon farm in Upper Skeheen, Ireland prior to the years the family emigrated to America. Bridget Fitzgerald Condon is our great-great grandmother.

GRACE ADAIR HUNT

Grace Adair, eldest daughter of Charles S. and Mary Gardner Adair was born in the John Brown cabin on the home farm one mile west of Osawatomie, and grew to young womanhood there.

She attended school here and was a member of the first class to graduate from the Osawatomie high school, completing the high school work in 1894. She then worked in the office of the Remington Lumber company operated by her uncle, J. B. Remington; after ten years there she went to Kansas City, Mo., to the C. J. Carter lumber company where she worked as chief bookkeeper for 37 years, finishing her work there some three years ago.

She gave unfailing devotion and tender care to her aged aunt, Anna Gardner, who preceded her in death just six weeks ago.

Mrs. Hunt passed away at her home on the old homestead in the early morning of June 30, 1945.

The funeral service was held at the Eddy Funeral Home on Tuesday, July 3, with Rev. Max Barnes of the Methodist church, officiating and Rev. W. C. Burton, pastor of the First Congregational church of Kansas City, Mo., assisting him.

Heaven will be richer for her presence, and earth will long be blessed by the memory of her gracious life.

She was a member of the P. E. O. sisterhood, the Mercy Hospital League, the Monday club, and enjoyed the homey work of the Indianapolis Farm Bureau Unit.

Mrs. Hunt was deeply religious, as a small child she was taken to Sunday school and church by her grandfather, the Rev. S. L. Adair, who was the pioneer pastor in this part of the newly settled country. She worked enthusiastically in the Sunday school department of the Congregational church held in the old stone church which still stands on North Sixth Street, in Osawatomie. After going to Kansas City she was affiliated with the Presbyterian church, later transferring her membership to the First Congregational church there.

On June 20, 1914, she was married to M. J. Hunt, who, with a brother, Walter B. Adair of Russelville, Ky., survive her.

Mrs. Hunt was richly endowed with all the gracious attributes of womanhood; patience, sincerity, tolerance and kindness were the ways of her daily life, no word of criticism or condemnation passed her lips, her faith in God was staunch in time of adversity as in time of security.
